

Computational Linguistics (CL3.101)

Summer 2021, IIIT Hyderabad

22 June, Tuesday (Lecture 12) – Morph Analysis 4

Taught by Prof. Radhika Mamidi

Paradigm Based Morphological Analysers

The headwords in a dictionary are called lexemes. They are usually written in all-caps. Their inflected forms are its word forms.

Note that derived words are new lexemes.